

SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

Name:

Date:

Safety Topic: V2-55 Lockout Tagout – Group Lockout/Tagout

1. Properly setting up lockout and tagout for equipment prevents injuries to the workers who are servicing, repairing, or adjusting the equipment.
 - a. True
 - b. False

2. When servicing or maintenance is performed by a crew, department, team of contractors or other group, _____ must be protected by lockout/tagout.
 - a. office workers
 - b. the maintenance crew
 - c. every worker
 - d. supervisors and managers

3. During the work, the authorized representative for the group must have a way to know _____ of each person on the team or group.
 - a. the likes and dislikes
 - b. the status
 - c. the social security number
 - d. the favorite tool

4. After the work and before removal of the group lock and tag from the equipment, the responsible authorized employee
 - a. must verify everyone in the group is counted.
 - b. might want to take a lunch break.
 - c. can leave the work site.
 - d. doesn't need to do anything else before they remove the lock and tag.

5. Group lockout/tagout procedures may change depending on the specific site, project or job, but in every situation only _____ can perform the work under lockout/tagout.
 - a. Directors and above
 - b. one person from each company
 - c. the crew foreman
 - d. trained and authorized workers

SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

ANSWER KEY

Safety Topic: V2-55 Lockout Tagout – Group Lockout/Tagout

1. Properly setting up lockout and tagout for equipment prevents injuries to the workers who are servicing, repairing, or adjusting the equipment.
 - ☒ a. True
 - b. False

2. When servicing or maintenance is performed by a crew, department, team of contractors or other group, _____ must be protected by lockout/tagout.
 - a. office workers
 - b. the maintenance crew
 - ☒ c. every worker
 - d. supervisors and managers.

3. During the work, the authorized representative for the group must have a way to know _____ of each person on the team or group.
 - a. the likes and dislikes
 - ☒ b. the status
 - c. the social security number
 - d. the favorite tool

4. After the work and before removal of the group lock and tag from the equipment, the responsible authorized employee ☒ a. must verify everyone in the group is counted.
 - b. might want to take a lunch break.
 - c. can leave the work site.
 - d. doesn't need to do anything else before they remove the lock and tag.

5. Group lockout/tagout procedures may change depending on the specific site, project or job, but in every situation only _____ can perform the work under lockout/tagout.
 - a. Directors and above
 - b. one person from each company
 - c. the crew foreman
 - ☒ d. trained and authorized workers

