

SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

Name:

Date:

Safety Topic: V1-207 Work Zones – Internal Traffic Control Plans (ITCP)

1. Internal traffic control refers to how traffic is managed
 - a. within the job site.
 - b. on nearby public roads.
 - c. in surrounding neighborhoods.
 - d. on state or federal highways.

2. A goal of internal traffic control is to
 - a. keep equipment and people moving safely and efficiently.
 - b. reduce or eliminate the need for equipment to back up.
 - c. prevent collisions between vehicles and workers.
 - d. all of the above.

3. On a job site with an internal traffic control plan there could be
 - a. workers choosing their own routes based on convenience.
 - b. equipment operators working or reversing without spotters.
 - c. designated walkways marked with cones, tape, or barriers.
 - d. music stations and food trucks placed near high-traffic areas.

4. The purpose of placing restrooms, parking, and water stations away from equipment paths on a job site is to
 - a. reduce noise near break areas.
 - b. encourage workers to take shorter breaks.
 - c. make it easier to find these facilities.
 - d. prevent workers from crossing active equipment routes.

5. An Internal Traffic Control Plan can help separate workers on foot from heavy equipment routes to reduce the risk of struck-by incidents.
 - a. True
 - b. False

SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

ANSWER KEY

Safety Topic: V1-207 Work Zones – Internal Traffic Control Plans (ITCP)

1. Internal traffic control refers to how traffic is managed
 - a. within the job site.
 - b. on nearby public roads.
 - c. in surrounding neighborhoods.
 - d. on state or federal highways.

2. A goal of internal traffic control is to
 - a. keep equipment and people moving safely and efficiently.
 - b. reduce or eliminate the need for equipment to back up.
 - c. prevent collisions between vehicles and workers.
 - d. all of the above.

3. On a job site with an internal traffic control plan there could be
 - a. workers choosing their own routes based on convenience.
 - b. equipment operators driving in reverse without spotters.
 - c. designated walkways marked with cones, tape, or barriers.
 - d. music stations and food trucks placed near high-traffic areas.

4. The purpose of placing restrooms, parking, and water stations away from equipment paths on a job site is to
 - a. reduce noise near break areas.
 - b. encourage workers to take shorter breaks.
 - c. make it easier to find these facilities.
 - d. prevent workers from crossing active equipment routes.

5. An Internal Traffic Control Plan can help separate workers on foot from heavy equipment routes to reduce the risk of struck-by incidents.
 - a. True
 - b. False

