SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

Name:	Date:
Safety Topic: V1-14B OSHA Focus Four – Electrocution

1. Always survey or examine the area where you will be working for any possible electrical hazards such as
    a. open electrical cabinets.
    b. damaged outlets or fixtures.
    c. power cables used for temporary lighting.
    d. all of the above.

2. Always _____ your electrical tools and equipment before use.
    a. say a prayer for
    b. inspect
    c. rub sawdust on
    d. give a nickname to

3. It's fine to use an electrical tool or equipment if the ground pin is missing, broke, or defective.
    a. True
    b. False

4. Openings in electrical panels should _____ to prevent accidental shocks or electrocution.
    a. be kept open
    b. not be inspected
    c. be ignored
    d. be covered, guarded or protected

5. Prevent and avoid contact with overhead electrical lines when
    a. moving a ladder, scaffold, or forklift.
    b. rearranging your office furniture.
    c. parking your car in a parking garage.
    d. showing up late for work.

SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

ANSWER KEY

Safety Topic: V1-14B OSHA Focus Four – Electrocution

1. Always survey or examine the area where you will be working for any possible electrical hazards such as
   a. open electrical cabinets.
   b. damaged outlets or fixtures.
   c. power cables used for temporary lighting.
   d. all of the above.

2. Always _____ your electrical tools and equipment before use.
   a. say a prayer for
   b. inspect
   c. rub sawdust on
   d. give a nickname to

3. It's fine to use an electrical tool or equipment if the ground pin is missing, broke, or defective.
   a. True
   b. False

4. Openings in electrical panels should _____ to prevent accidental shocks or electrocution.
   a. be kept open
   b. not be inspected
   c. be ignored
   d. be covered, guarded or protected

5. Prevent and avoid contact with overhead electrical lines when
   a. moving a ladder, scaffold, or forklift.
   b. rearranging your office furniture.
   c. parking your car in a parking garage.
   d. showing up late for work